Huntington Heads Up™

Heads Up messages are real-time insights into your spending and saving to help you make more informed decisions about your money. At a glance, you’ll know when you’re spending more than usual or approaching the spending limits you set.

Overview
Heads Up alerts° work with Huntington’s online banking tools in The Hub. As you use your Huntington debit and credit cards, we’ll let you know when you’ve spent more than average, when you’re close to the spending limits you set, and more.

You can receive Heads Up alerts by push notifications, email or text°.

Types of Alerts
Budget activity alerts let you know how you are spending against the budgets you set up in the Spend Setter tool.

With information from Spend Analysis, you’ll get a spending comparison alert if your spending from the previous month is above average.

Heads Up for savings goals and more are coming soon.

Types of Heads Up Alerts

Budget Activity

- Nearing Budget
  Know as soon as you've spent 50% and 75% of each budget category.

- Budget Reached
  Know as soon as you reach or pass your budget.

- Monthly Budget Review
  When the month ends, you'll get a look at your total spending for that month. Under budget in a category? Maybe put the extra into savings. Spent more than average in another category? Make adjustments next month.

Example of Nearing Budget:

Huntington Heads Up.
You’re halfway through your Restaurants budget. You’ve spent $94 of the $188 you planned.

Spending Comparison

Currently there is one Spending Comparison Heads Up you can receive but more are on the way!

- Above Average Spending
  Know when your spending from the previous month is both “unusual” and “meaningful” compared to the previous month.
  - Unusual spending is when your total spending in a category spikes within a month due to a large one-time charge or a significant change in a spending pattern.
  - Meaningful spending is when spending in a category is $100 or more than your 6-month average in that category.

Example of Above Average Spending:

Huntington Heads Up. Your Shopping spending was $345 in June. That’s $73 more than your average.
