

REDICO

At Huntington Bank, we see something big happening in Michigan. This is Jim Dunlap. Welcome to Huntington's Best in Business. Honoring the past while building for the future can be a monumental task, but it's one that REDICO takes to heart. For almost 50 years, REDICO's blend of creativity and forward-thinking has ensured that the buildings and properties develop and manage remain viable in the community. While their know-how has expanded across Michigan and nationally, they've remained devoted to Detroit and put the REDICO name behind some familiar properties like, Gateway Marketplace, One Kennedy Square, and the Fisher and Albert Kahn Buildings. Whether it's a new build or a historic preservation, REDICO is hard at work developing award-winning projects throughout the Midwest. At Huntington, we're big believers in that kind of commitment. So when Redico came to us for help, they knew they were getting a bank that would stick by them, every step of the way.
