SELECTING GIFT RECIPIENTS AND AWARDING GIFTS

All eligible Entries will be reviewed by Huntington and judged based on the following criteria:

1. Adherence to the Purpose of the Contest in Helping Others
2. Authentic, Inspirational and Unique Story
3. Quality of the Submission

Huntington will choose up to 30 Nominees in its sole discretion to receive a gift.

Huntington will notify you via email by January 9, 2023 if Huntington has chosen your Nominee to receive a gift (“Gift Notification”). In order for your Nominee to remain eligible to receive a gift, you must respond to the Gift Notification within the time period stated in the Gift Notification.

Huntington may require you and your Nominee to complete, sign, and return an affidavit of eligibility and liability/publicity release before awarding a gift. Huntington also may require you and your Nominee to submit to a background check whose results are acceptable to Huntington. You acknowledge that Huntington, itself or through one or more third-parties, may conduct the background check. You agree to provide Huntington and such third-parties with reasonable information requested and that such information may be used by Huntington and the relevant third-parties to complete the background check. You hereby consent to this background check and understand that information obtained through the background check will be disclosed to Huntington and used to determine whether your Nominee is eligible to receive a gift.

In the event of noncompliance with the Official Rules by you or your Nominee, your Entry will not receive further consideration and any gift to be awarded will be forfeited and an alternate Nominee may be selected to receive a gift (time permitting).
